The Methodist Issachar Watcher 12-18/12/2024

Prayer items 2nd week of December

1.World:

- a. The Situation in Syria: We lift up in prayer the ongoing political turmoil in Syria following the fall of their leader: President Bashar al-Assad. Let us pray for peace and stability in the region, particularly as ISIS forces threaten renewed conflict. <https://www.bbc.com/news/articles/cp8n20z080ko>
- b. Prisoners in Syria: With the recent release of prisoners from Syrian prisons after the fall of Syrian President Bashar al-Assad, we pray for the freedom of all those who continue to suffer unjustly. May they find true liberation in Christ. <https://www.bbc.com/news/articles/c2dx3ekpr59o>

2.Nation:

- a. Medical Insurance Premiums: Let us pray for wisdom for Malaysia's government and relevant authorities as they address the rising medical insurance premiums. May they find solutions that ensure affordable healthcare for all Malaysians. <https://m.malaysiakini.com/columns/728613>
- b. Flood Relief Efforts: We hold in prayer the victims of the recent floods in various parts of Malaysia. Let us pray for the safety and well-being of those affected and for the churches in those areas to be instruments of God's love as we provide aid to those in need.

3.Church:

- a. Christmas Outreach: During this Christmas season, we pray that the church will be a beacon of light, sharing the message of the gospel with those in need. May the love of Christ shine brightly in the hearts and actions of our church community.
- b. The True Meaning of Christmas: We pray that the church will remain focused on the true meaning of Christmas: the birth, life, sacrifice, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. May we resist the secularization of this holy season and keep Christ at the centre of our celebrations.

4.Individual/Family:

- a. Spiritual Growth: let us pray for the continued spiritual growth of all believers. May we be committed to put into practice the spiritual disciplines that deepen our relationship with God.
- b. The Christmas Message: Let us pray that Christian families will take time during this Christmas season to reflect on the true meaning of Christ's incarnation. May this reflection strengthen their faith and bring them closer together.
